++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Dry and turning chilly in places tonight.

This Evening and Tonight:
It will stay largely dry with occasional clear intervals overnight, especially further east, but overall there will be quite a lot of cloud. Less cold than many recent nights, but still cold enough for a touch of frost in places. Minimum temperature 2 deg C (36 deg F).

Wednesday:
Quite a cloudy start, but dry with some hazy sunshine in places. Scattered showers will develop through the morning, but still with the odd sunny spell. Feeling warm. Maximum temperature 17 deg C (63 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Fine and dry throughout, with plenty of sunny spells and fair-weather cloud. However, brisk winds are likely, with gales possible. Becoming a bit warmer again in shelter from the wind.
